

2023 The Women's Fund

Community Foundation of the North State

Grant Information/Parameters

The Women's Fund of the Community Foundation of the North State was founded in 2008 to address the persistent challenges facing women and their families in the Redding area. Today, The Women's Fund is part of a global movement of Women's Funds throughout the world, making a difference through collaborative philanthropy.

Grant applicants must address The Women's Fund mission to "create a better future for women and their families in the Redding Area". The services provided by organizations funded through grants from The Women's Fund must take place within and include residents of the Redding area which is defined as Cottonwood (within Shasta County) to the South, Shasta Lake City to the North, Palo Cedro to the East, and Igo/Ono to the West.

Grant requests should be between $1,000 and $10,000.

Eligible organizations include: Nonprofit, public charities with tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code, public entities (ex: counties, special districts, federally-recognized tribes), or projects/programs fiscally-sponsored by a nonprofit or public entity. Organizations are not precluded from applying to The Women's Fund for consecutive years.

Grant awardees will be asked to give a brief presentation at a Women's Fund Giving Circle event to be held Weds. Nov. 8, 2023 at 5:30 pm. Giving Circle participants will vote for one awardee organization to be recipient of unrestricted bonus award from monies raised at event.

Proposal Summary

Project Name/Grant Description*

At its simplest core, what will be done if the grant is awarded? Most common examples start with "purchase", "support", "provide", "sponsor", etc.

A good grant description can include:

What – What is the primary purpose of the grant?

Who – Who is specifically meant to benefit from the grant?
Where – What geographic area(s) is the grant meant to serve?

Example: Purchase books for learners 0-5 years old in Shasta County. For additional examples, see "project name" section of a past grant award list from this fund
Character Limit: 250

Project Description*

Please briefly summarize your project (approx. 1-2 paragraphs). Imagine you are telling someone about your project in an elevator and you have just a few minutes to pitch it. Why is this project needed?

Character Limit: 3500

Describe the top goals (intended results) for the project, in terms of outputs and outcomes.*

Outputs: immediately quantifiable activities, goods or services offered by your project.

- What are the tangible things you will be able to do, if funded (ex: purchase software, host x# of workshops)?
- Who will you reach with these activities? How many people and who do you expect to serve?

Outcomes: changes brought about by project.

- What short and long-term changes do you hope to see as a result of your project?
- How will this project create a better future for women and their families in the Redding area in the near future and down the road?

Outputs and outcomes are part of the Logic Model framework, which help provide a roadmap for creating successful programs. For an overview, click here and for a more in-depth look, click here.

How will you work with others in the community to support this proposed project?*

Please describe any collaborative relationships with other organizations and/or volunteer participation in this proposed project. If this particular project does not involve collaboration with other organizations or volunteers, how does your organization involve the community in general to meet it's mission?

Character Limit: 3500

Provide a timeline for your project, including key milestones and the estimated completion date.*

Please note, it takes up to 3 months from the application due date for the grant review process to complete. As such, project activity should start a minimum of 3 months from the application due date (in this instance, no earlier than early-to-mid December). Reimbursements for costs incurred prior to grant award are not eligible. If awarded, projects must be completed within 12 months of grant award notification.
